

Video Bill Nye Germs

Last Name _____, First _____ per _____

1. Where do you find germs?

2. How big are germs?

3. What are the special kind of chemicals that our own bodies make to find germs?

4. What kind of cell can sense or recognize an antibody attached to a germ and attack it?

5. What causes a zit?

6. Does being cold make you sick?

7. What causes the common cold?

8. If you catch a cold, what does your body start making in order to start fighting it?

9. How many different kinds of viruses can give you a cold?

10. What can be put in food to prevent rotting?

11. How can you make your own preservative?
12. Why is it not a good idea to touch your face with your hands?
13. What can you do to help reduce the chances of you getting sick?
14. How does a virus reproduce?
15. Can viruses change? and why is this a problem?
16. What virus attacks the white blood cells of our immune system?
17. What disease does HIV cause?
18. Can a person get AIDS just from being around a person with AIDS?
19. What do health inspectors do?
20. How do some white blood cells attack germs?